FRIDAYMARCH 29, 1901

A ROYAL FIGURE-HEAD.

The controversy that has been in progress as to the form of oath King Edward shall take has brought out in a very marked manner the limited authority vested in the monarch under the form of government that now obtains in England. The last vestiges of absolutism passed away with the Georges, and today the decrees of Parliament are acquiesced in by the sovereign without even protest.

It is related that the late W. E. Gladstone once went to Queen Victoria, and presenting an act of Parliament asked her in the usual formal way to give it her official signature. The Queen at first demurred, as it did not meet her entire approval. Gladstone, however, was obdurate and intimated very strongly that she was compelled to give her assent. This pressure from the Premier rather nettled her majesty and she indignantly responded, "You must remember, sir, I am the Queen." Gladstone in reply bowed very deeply and in a significant tone said: "And you must remember, madam, that I am the people." Her majesty signed the document in question without further protest.

The late Queen was too polite a woman to court a contest with a power which she well recognized was the dominating one in British affairs, and ever after the set-to with Gladstone her majesty always submitted to the wishes of Parliament. As matters stand today the spirit of democracy is as strong in England as it is in the United States, and though the forms of royalty are preserved its powers have long since departed. Over a hundred years ago it was said that the Englishman had more rights than the Englishman's King, and if anything this difference and distinction between sovereign and subject has grown to the great advantage of the latter. While of course the influence of the sovereign from a social and moral standpoint is tremendous and far reaching, he is totally divested of all political authority, and is more the slave of parliamentary whim than even the poor subject who has rights that cannot be taken from him. The very fact that his wishes are not consulted as to the form of oath he is to take is indication enough of how little his personality is concerned, the "divine right" for which the Stuarts fought—and incidentally died—having long since been relegated to the obscurity of mere tradition.

THE CAPTURE OF AGUINALDO.

With the capture of Aguinaldo the disturbance in the Philippines can be said to be ended. It passed the dignity of war long ago, and for the past eighteen months has simply amounted to the flight of armed freebooters whose sole idea has been to put as much ground as possible between themselves and the United States troops. As for Aguinaldo, the whilom leader of the rebel forces, he has been well enough satisfied for months past to keep out of public notice and would undoubtedly have been willing to come to an agreement by which he could purchase his personal liberty by surrendering his ambition to rule over the islands.

Just so long as Aguinaldo was at large it was certain that he would be a disturbing element, and brave General Funston determined to make a master-stroke by affecting his capture. The plans were well laid and ably executed, and with his removal from the Philippines there is little doubt that the last vestiges of the insurrection will quickly die out. Without his counsels and controlling influence his followers will be unable to accomplish anything, for it must be admitted that he is a man of much resource, energy and capability.

General Funston will, of course, be the hero of the hour, and with Hobson will share the personal honors of the Spanish-American war. The Administration at Washington will be only too willing to lavish honors upon him, for to his daring and genius will be due the culmination of the President's hopes and plans in the Far East. The incident marks the closing of a drama that has cost us millions of dollars and the lives of thousands of brave men, but which has brought honor to the flag and upheld the national integrity in the face of the world.

It will be a case of a (John) Bull in a China shop in the Far East ere long, judging by the way the Russian affair is developing. Japan is throwing her lot with England as a means of self-preservation, and there will be a merry smashing of political crockery unless the conditions quickly change. Looks as if it is about time to call that International Peace Commission together in special session.

Mrs. Nation has had the nerve to invade Kentucky in her anti-saloon crusade. On second thoughts, though, this is not so daring an exploit after all, for loyal as every Kentuckian is to his Bourbon, chivalry counts first in the Blue Grass State and Mrs. Nation's skirts will protect her.

Millionaire Bradbury is on the spit again, this time, though, not in connection with the expectation ordinance. He has got into trouble with one of his guests and as a result is adding to his record of getting into court more often than any other private individual in California.

BRAZILIAN CONSPIRACY WIDESPREAD.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
 NEW YORK, March 29.—A dispatch to the Herald from Rio de Janeiro says:

An official organ of the government asserts that the monarchist conspiracy had obtained the co-operation of two battalions of infantry and two troops of cavalry under the command of General Carlos Soares and Colonel Pantaleon Quilores.

Habeas corpus proceedings have been begun in the interest of Admiral Mello, but it is announced that the government is determined to send him to Amazonia.

STARBEAMS.

A woman's heart is like the moon. It may be changeable, but generally there is only one man in it.

Evidently warmer weather is close at hand. The ice men are meeting to raise the price of ice, and give the public the usual cold deal.

There are women in this world, and men, too, who are so delicate that they are afraid of catching cold by drinking from a damp tumbler.

"Don't you think my daughter has a great voice?" asked Whiskbones of his neighbor. "She certainly has. But I wouldn't be discouraged. She's young yet and may outgrow it, you know."

Portia Knight in her suit for breach of promise against the Duke of Zimmerman is going after him in real earnest. Before Portia at the bar gets through Papa Zimmerman will probably lose the equivalent of a pound of flesh.—Kansas City Star.

BALLADE OF NEW CHARACTERS.

The reign of old Romance is o'er,
 The pensive heroine is dead;
 Grief-ridden specters walk no more
 In haunted chambers overhead;
 The bookworm nowadays is fed
 From fresher fields and pastures new.
 Good-by to lovers safely wed—
 Enter, the literary Zoo!

Gone are the lengthy tales of yore
 That to a tragic climax led,
 The storied past has closed its door,
 The villain that pursued has fled
 Before the conquering quadruped
 Whose dialogue of bark and mew
 Is faithfully interpreted—
 Enter, the literary Zoo!

The puppet man has left the floor,
 And modern authors seek instead
 'The jungle and the lonely shore
 By characters inhabited
 With dauntless men and fearsome tread
 —They've caged in colors bright and new
 The lion and the thoroughbred—
 Enter, the literary Zoo!

—Jennie B. Hartwick in The Bookman.

PETTIGREW SORRY FOR AGUINALDO.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Ex-Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota said in an interview respecting Aguinaldo's capture:

"I do not know that the capture of Aguinaldo will terminate the war in the Philippines. I am not sufficiently acquainted with the Malay race to speak of their tenacity. The capture of George Washington would not have ended the American revolution.

"Others would have been found to take his place. With the Philippines it may be different. The capture of Aguinaldo may prove a very good thing for his people.

"I consider our treatment of the Philippines constitutes one of the blackest pages in American history. Aguinaldo was one of our allies and his people should have been given their independence when the Americans took possession of the islands.

"General Funston's act was a brave and risky one, and I believe it was a bona fide undertaking, for the success of which Funston should be well rewarded.

"I suppose Aguinaldo will be treated as a prisoner of war, and it will not surprise me to see the day when the American people will recognize his true worth and treat him accordingly."

FILIPINOS WILL GO ON FIGHTING.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

BOSTON, March 29.—Sixto Lopez, formerly secretary to Aguinaldo, who said that the capture of Aguinaldo would not necessarily end the war, amplified that statement by saying that any one of the principal generals, Tinio, Mascardo, Alejandrino, Maxillon, Calles or Angiola, would make as good an, or in the opinion of many Filipinos, better leader than Aguinaldo.

"It is impossible to say what leader will take Aguinaldo's place," said Lopez. "I presume there will be a council of Generals to decide the matter."

"It would be idle," he continued, "to suppose that Aguinaldo's capture, assuming that it is a fact, will have no effect upon the Filipinos. But the effect upon the war will to some extent depend upon the way in which Aguinaldo is treated. It would be best, as a matter of policy, I should say, for the United States Government not to deal severely with him. Otherwise it will make the Filipinos even more determined, if that were possible. Naturally I think the United States government ought to treat with him and obtain an authoritative statement of the desires of the Filipinos. But it is not at all probable that the Government will do so."

AGUINALDO HOLDS A CONFERENCE.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

MANILA, March 29.—Aguinaldo today conferred in the Tagalog language at the Malacanang palace with several former members of his Cabinet and other prominent Filipinos, whom he asked to see. They explained to him the hopelessness of the insurgent cause and advised him to use his influence to establish peace and for the recognition of American sovereignty. The result of the conference is as yet unknown.

The first execution in Manila under American rule took place today at Fort Malar, where five natives were hanged for the murder of Archibald Wilson, an Englishman, superintendent of the water works. The motive for the murder was robbery.

Twelve thousand Filipinos have taken the oath of allegiance to the United States at San Vicente, South Ilocos province.

ENGLISH LIFE AGREES WITH CROKER.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 29.—John P. Andrews of London, who has been interested with Richard Croker in business enterprises abroad, was a passenger on the Teutonic, just arrived. Mr. Andrews saw Mr. Croker at the Hotel Cecil in London last week. He says that the Tammany chieftain is in excellent health. In fact, he was never better. In London Mr. Croker was joined by his son Herbert, who has fully recovered from the effects of the injuries he sustained on shipboard.

PIONEER WINEMAKER PASSES AWAY.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Ex-Alderman Sigrist of the old Twenty-first ward of Brooklyn is dead at his home in that borough. He was one of the first viticulturists and producers of California wines and brandies in his own vineyards, which he named "Challenge," near Napa, Cal. He retired twenty-five years ago. Mr. Sigrist was born in Bavaria, Germany.

EARNED MONEY FOR INCURABLES.

Excellent Results of the Big Rummage Sale.

The Rummage Sale for the benefit of the Home of the King's Daughters, which has been in progress for three days at the northwest corner of Ninth and Broadway, came to a close yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, so far as the King's Daughters were concerned. Up to that time the ladies had taken in $900 and felt satisfied with their three days' work.

The goods remaining unsold at the hour mentioned were turned over to the Mutual Benefit Society and members of that organization continued the sale until 9 o'clock last night. At that hour practically everything had disappeared.

The sale will be continued at the Free Market tomorrow, beginning at 10 o'clock. In the meantime, other goods will be received which will be sure to find favor with the patrons of that place.

There will be another car. But the man can't wait. He chases the car and swings on, panting and hot, but satisfied. He keeps this gait all day. He works that way, he lurches that way. He continues this until his stomach "breaks down" and nature compels him to "go slow."

Business men who have impaired their digestion by hasty eating will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a cure for dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It does not give mere temporary relief, but it effects a radical cure. It strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves and purifies the blood.

"For six long years I suffered with my liver, kidneys, and with indigestion, which baffled the best doctors in our country," writes E. L. Knapoll, Esq., of Woolsey, Prince William Co., Va. "I suffered with my stomach and back for a long time, and after taking a 'course' of medicine from three doctors I grew so bad I could hardly do a day's work. Would have thought I was in a sick and blind spell, and thought life was hardly worth living. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets, as advised. Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved. I got my appetite and went then and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

TUNNEL BILL IS SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR.

Governor Gage has signed the bill introduced in the Legislature by Senator Belshaw relating to the construction, maintenance and repair of roads, tunnels and bridges.

The bill amends section 212 of the Political Code so as to authorize Boards of Supervisors where it is apparent to them that the maintenance of the roads, bridges or tunnels is oppressive to the taxpayers of any road district to cause the cost of such maintenance to be paid out of the general road fund of the county. It also empowers Supervisors by a two-thirds vote of the board in such instances to take money for the purposes specified out of the county general fund.

Secretary Walker says that under this law it will be possible for both the Alameda and Contra Costa county Supervisors to jointly appropriate money from the county government fund with which to build the tunnel through the hills to connect both counties.

COUNTY NEWS.

POLITICIANS IN ALAMEDA AWAIT DECISION

Interesting News Notes From the Encinal City.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—The big election contest is coming up in the Superior Court tomorrow morning before the Superior Judges sitting in banc. A temporary injunction was granted and the hearing was set for next Monday, but as the litigants have been unable to agree upon the matter the date will be put forward by stipulation to Saturday. The straight ticket men have engaged C. L. Colvin, an Oakland attorney, to argue their claims to registration, and Italy will be represented by Attorney G. H. Perry of this city, and with him will probably be associated E. K. Taylor, J. N. Young and Frank G. Judge Greene, appreciating the importance of the matter. The contest will be heard by Judges Hall and Ogden, sitting with him when the arguments are made.

OLD LADY IS INJURED.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—Mrs. Lucinda Deardorff, the aged mother of Frank Deardorff of 108 Grand street, met with a painful accident recently. She was attempting to catch a kitten on the sidewalk, when she suddenly slipped and fell, breaking her hip bone. She is 84 years old. Her condition is considered serious.

QUIET WEDDING.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—Carl Grunberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Grunberg of 1511 Central avenue, was married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Voorsanger to Miss May Bloom of San Francisco. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bloom, on Geary street, and was witnessed by 100 guests. The couple, who were unattended, stood beneath a canopy of lilacs. In the canopy hung a dove—a matrimonial dove which has been used at six weddings in the Grunberg family. The bride wore white satin with chiffon trimmings. After the wedding supper the couple left for Monterey and will visit Coronado before returning to reside at the home of the bride's parents. The groom is associated with Bloom & Son in San Francisco.

AFTER ALLMAN'S ESTATE.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—Richard Allman, employed as a clerk in the Park Hotel, is a brother of John Allman, the old stage owner and mail contractor, whose body was found floating in Oakland creek. He intends to put up a legal fight for his brother's fortune, as it was built, he claims, upon his own misfortune. Richard Allman's story is that he got into trouble with the law of Nevada in 1865, and in order to save his property from being confiscated turned it over to his brother John, who could get it back and his own poor estate since. He thinks the estate rightfully belongs to him.

ENCINAL NEWS NOT S.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—When Pacific Hose Company, No. 4, of the Alameda Volunteer Fire Department recently disbanded it was undecided why in Frutvale. A silver trumpet presented to the company years ago and which is now in the hands of John Beckman. To prevent the trumpet from being turned over to the city the old exempt has reorganized. They have signed a compact that they will never be parted from the historic trumpet as long as any of the members survive, and when the last one answers the call the trophy is to go to the grave with him and occupy a place in his coffin.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 29.—Robert Zelez died suddenly of heart disease at his home, 1528 St. Charles street, last night. Deceased was about 45 years of age and a native of Germany. He had large interests in Mexico. The coroner decided not to hold an inquest.

JAS. R. LITTLE'S RESIGNATION IS A SURPRISE.

Missing Berkeley Child Is Found By Police.

BERKELEY, March 29.—The announcement that James R. Little has resigned as agent of the Berkeley office of the Southern Pacific Railroad will occasion considerable surprise. Mr. Little will be succeeded by F. Sowerby, who has conducted the station at Milpitas. The local office of the railroad company has grown to be the largest on the line with the exception of that at Sixteenth street station, Oakland. It is rumored that the increase in business did not bring a corresponding increase in salary. It is further stated that a disagreement was caused by Mr. Little's refusing to pay extra help out of his own wages.

BERKELEY, March 29.—The police have found Emerson Estey, the 5-year-old child who was reported to have wandered from the home of his aunt, Mrs. George Presen, of Sixty-third street. The child disappeared from home yesterday afternoon and word had been given out that he had been kidnapped.

WILL NOT LEAVE CITY.

BERKELEY, Mar. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. William Keith are not to leave this city to reside in San Francisco, as has been widely rumored and extensively published. The fact that the well-known artist is having a residence built across the bay probably gave rise to the report. We have no idea whatever of leaving Berkeley."

Good Food Smooths Them Over.

"There is probably nothing in the world that produces as much happiness as the peculiar feeling that comes over the mind when well fed with nourishing food that particularly rebuilds the brain, and makes everything on earth have a rosy taint. Ambition is renewed, spirits are of the most sanguine, and confidence has restored that feeling within us which carries us over the rough places."

So writes man who has built up from a wretched invalid to a fine complexion of health by changing his diet and using Grape-Nuts Food.

"There is no sense of enjoyment equal to that of being well physically and mentally. I can hardly realize that such a transposition has been made. From being ill tempered and disagreeable I have changed to something like enjoyment. I now feel that life was not worth living. I now feel that I would like to live always."

"I enclose a sample of my handwriting showing my nervous condition before using Grape-Nuts Food, and you can compare it with my signature to this letter."

The writing done while he was in a nervous, ill fed condition is shown on an old time check and reports a series of dates when he was absent on account of sickness. His signature was made in lines that consist of minute waves of wiggles, showing the desperately weak condition, while the signature to the letter is remarkable for its clear penmanship.

It is the old story over and over again that when a man is broken down because he exhausts the gray matter in the nerve cells and brain from over work and improper food, he can rebuild that gray matter by using Grape-Nuts, for this food contains Phosphate of Potash direct from the natural grains of the field, and this, united with the Albumen of the grains make the only combination that will rebuild this peculiar soft, gray substance.

REFUSED THE SCHOOL.

SEEKING MORE RAILROADS.

Committee Makes a Report to the City Council.

The special joint committee consisting of M. J. Keller, William Walker, J. S. Nalson, F. H. Girard, Louis Schaff, R. K. Fisher, C. A. Chickster and George R. Stearns, appointed to devise some means to encourage manufacturers and railroads to come to Oakland, filed its report with the City Council last night.

The committee reported that after consulting City Attorney Bow it was decided that taxes on manufacturing enterprises could not be remitted without an amendment to the State Constitution and that city property could not be sold or leased for manufacturing purposes without an amendment to the city charter.

The committee therefore took no further steps in that direction, but applied its efforts to the railroad question, concerning which the report reads as follows: "A sub-committee was appointed and conferences were held with the Realty Syndicate, Mr. Galpin, the attorney for C. H. Smith; A. A. Grant, the receiver of the California and Nevada Railroad; Captain A. H. Payson of the Valley Road; Vice President Merton of the Santa Fe, and finally with President Ripley of the Santa Fe Railroad Company.

"The committee was especially received by all these gentlemen, and in situation was thoroughly explained to the representatives of the Santa Fe Company. We assured them of the earnest desire of the people of Oakland to secure the entrance into our city of another transcontinental railroad. We pointed out to them the most feasible way of effecting such entrance into Oakland and expressed a willingness to aid in securing such a result.

"We are satisfied that the officials of the Santa Fe Company are thoroughly familiar with the local situation. We endeavored to make clear to them the friendly feeling of the people of Oakland, and we are encouraged to hope that Oakland will, in the near future, have what she has so long desired—additional railroad facilities local and overland."

BESSIE YOUNG IS FOUND WITH FRIENDS.

Miss Bessie Young, who suddenly disappeared from the home of James L. Chittenden, 627 San Pablo avenue, has been located at the home of her grandmother in San Francisco. No reason is given for the strange departure save that a dispute took place between the young woman and the Chittenden family with whom she had been making her home and she did not inform them that she was going away or where she was going. It was for this reason that the Chittendens asked the police to help locate the girl.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 28.—In the case of R. H. Thompson of Brooklyn, N. Thompson owned 230,000 worth of Peris Irrigation district bonds on which interest had defaulted and sued for the face value of the bonds. The

VULCAN SMELTING AND REFINING CO.

Conspirators Exposed in Their Bold Trickery.

THE TRIBUNE some time since called attention to the Vulcan Smelter at Melrose, which is one of the most important discoveries, affecting the material interests of California, which crowned the closing efforts of the nineteenth century, and which, if not harpered and impeded in its natural and merited development, is destined in the near future to take its place in the front rank among the most important and scientific accomplishments of the many which will make the last century famous for generations yet to come.

This furnace has implied and lessened the cost of the reduction of ores to such an extent as to attract public attention, and thereby challenges the criticism of all experts who have hitherto been devoting their attention to this important industry. The result of the experiment has established the fact that the Vulcan Company has outwitted all competitors in the cost of reducing ores by the smelting process, and today may fairly be regarded as one of the most important factors in the material development of California as well as adjacent States and Territories.

This company, representing as it does a new and important discovery in the field of scientific metallurgy, like every other important enterprise in the scientific or industrial field, has been hampered and antagonized by a most vicious and unscrupulous opposition from business rivals, which have even invaded the directorate of the company itself, and by bribery and other seditious methods has precipitated an unseemly and most unwarranted attack upon the company and its officers, in order to impede its progress and, if possible, to destroy its usefulness as a business rival in the most important industry of the present age.

The methods pursued in this instance are in keeping with the vile and nefarious methods of the designing knave everywhere in which legitimate enterprise is assailed by corrupt influences in order, if possible, to cripple or impede its growth and by this means deprive the public of the benefits naturally accruing from the practical operation of the enterprise itself. The annals of judicial procedure in California do not furnish a more striking example of unwarranted and unadulterated perjury and consummate and unpardonable treachery than that disclosed by the action of Allen R. Partridge against the Vulcan Smelting and Refining Company, now pending in the Superior Court of the city and county of San Francisco.

THE TRIBUNE has been interested in the business of the company, because it was launched in Alameda county, and many of our citizens became interested in its welfare and had invested their money in promoting the success of the enterprise.

In this regard they were constantly in communication with and advised by the plaintiff in the present action. At his request and solicitation they invested their money and purchased shares in the stock of the company. They were not only induced to buy shares in the company by the assurance of the plaintiff, that the work of the furnace would prove satisfactory, but also that the company itself would conduct its affairs in such a manner as to promote the best interests of all investors in its shares, and from which investment they would secure most satisfactory returns.

Upon the strength of these representations many of our citizens as well as those of neighboring counties, were induced to invest in the shares of the Vulcan Smelter, and are now shareholders therein. Immediately after these investments were made, Allen R. Partridge, the inventor of said furnace, and one of the directors of the company, commenced the action now pending in the courts of San Francisco against the company and its stockholders, who purchased their shares largely upon his representations and solicitation, in order to defraud the stockholders out of the money which they had invested, and if possible to have himself declared the owner of the furnace right and thereby deprive the stockholders of the Vulcan Company of the value of their shares, many of whom purchased their stock at the solicitation of the plaintiff.

THE TRIBUNE, upon learning of the action brought by the plaintiff Partridge against the company and its officers, has thoroughly investigated the merits of the action, by every means at its command, and is able to state that the action is wholly without merit in either law or equity, and is evidently the result of a conspiracy upon the part of the plaintiff and other irresponsible and designing confederates, who hope by this means to cripple the company financially and thereby enable them to secure control of the stock of the company, and by this means succeed to the management thereof.

In this effort the plaintiff is assisted by a number of disreputable characters, who are well-known swindlers and confidence men, whose reputations will be thoroughly ventilated before the suit is concluded. The officers of the company in charge of its affairs are all reputable citizens and have conducted the business of the corporation in a most satisfactory manner and strictly in accordance with the wishes of the stockholders, and the attack made upon them by the plaintiff and his co-conspirators is without the semblance of truth or decency. The plaintiff is simply a tool in the hands of designing knaves, and being himself wholly irresponsible, is put forward as of the schemers, who have precipitated the litigation now in progress.

But their efforts will prove abortive, as the public are now thoroughly convinced of their blackmailing methods, and the courts of California may be relied upon to deal with such swindlers in a manner they most richly deserve.

THE TRIBUNE will see to it that the public is kept fully advised of every move which this plaintiff and his gang attempt to make, and as the plot develops will hold up to public gaze the different actors in this brazen conspiracy.
